Separately-Managed-Account Offering

Historically, the only way to invest with BCM was through an investment partnership (the Barac Value Fund, L.P. (the “Fund”). For cost effectiveness and simplicity, the Fund was set up with a hedge-fund structure.

While I believe that the Fund’s terms are very attractive (within the confines of this type of structure), there are still a number of inherent drawbacks for many investors, including:

Drawbacks of the Investment Partnership

- Limited control (e.g. ownership of a percentage of the Fund rather than complete ownership/control of your own brokerage account);
- A regulatory requirement to be an “accredited investor”;
- A $250,000 investment minimum;
- Contributions required in cash (potentially requiring other investment liquidations and a crystallization of capital gains);
- Limited liquidity (monthly only); and
- Partnership “K1s” for tax preparation.

MANAGEMENT, LLC

To Address these Limitations, BCM is now Offering Separately-Managed Accounts (SMAs) which offer the Following Relative Benefits:

BARAC
CAPITAL
MANAGEMENT, LLC

Individually-Owned- Account

- This is your individually-owned Interactive Brokers brokerage account in your name.
- I will have trading privileges (with your consent), but you will have complete control of the account and only you can withdraw/transfer funds.
- You also have immediate liquidity and can withdraw funds whenever you wish.
- You will receive detailed monthly statements from Interactive Brokers and can view your statements and activity on-line at any time.
- You are taxed as with any other brokerage account and there is no need for K1s.

Customization

- With your input, we will customize your investments to meet your own specific financial needs and goals.
- Clients will receive a detailed initial strategy and positioning overview.
- Going forward, accounts will be continuously reviewed (and adjusted, when necessary) and clients will receive formal written reviews and benchmark performance evaluations quarterly.
- Between formal reviews, clients will have unlimited access for questions and discussion.

Open Participation and Lower
Minimums

- Open participation with no need to be an “accredited investor”.
- The minimum investment is only $95,000 (with even lower minimum amounts considered based upon circumstances).
- The minimum may increase for new clients over time; however, early clients will be “grandfathered” at that amount.
- Contributions are not required to be in cash and you can transfer security holdings from your existing brokerage accounts into your SMA (such that no capital gains are crystallized from selling any securities).

Lower Fees

- While the fees for the Fund were very low within the context of the hedge fund world, the fee structure for the SMAs will be even lower (starting at 0.95% per annum with marginal rates as low as 0.50% and below, based on account size).
- This advisory structure doesn't necessitate the same legal, fund administration, and auditing costs as does running a fund (which allows for the lower fees and the lower investment minimums).

No Commissions

- Many financial advisors are paid by trade commissions, which can incentivize unnecessary trading and the “churning” of client’s accounts.
- BCM receives no trading commission. Management compensation is solely based on a percentage of assets.
- I believe that this structure best aligns the interests of the financial advisor and the client.

No Conflicting Incentives

01

Many financial advisors are affiliated with brokers who also sell actively-managed mutual funds and annuities (which can have an additional layer of high commissions and/or fees).

02

These financial advisors can be incentivized through commissions to sell high-fee products.

03

BCM sells no products and will not invest in anything that has a sales commission or an active management fee.

Breadth of Experience

- Many financial advisors succeed based on their self-promotion skills rather than their investment skills and experience.
- Conversely, I believe that my extensive investment experience will be of considerable benefit to my clients, including:
 - Commercial banking experience with FleetBoston in Buenos Aires, Argentina.
 - Senior credit officer for Moody's in N.Y. and London (over 6 years experience).
 - Over 3 years working in London as a corporate bond analyst for Schroders (mutual fund manager of over $200 bn. in assets) and the investment bank Barclays Capital.
 - Manager of a multi-asset (bond/equity) fund since 2011.
 - B.S. from Trinity University (San Antonio) and M.B.A. from Southern Methodist University (Dallas).
 - Mr. Barac is a Registered Investment Advisor.

Track Record

- Because I have been managing an investment Fund since July of 2011, I have a proven investment track record.
- Since inception over 5 years ago, the Fund has delivered gross annualized returns¹² of 10.51%³⁴ (versus 9.12% for the Fund's benchmark⁵).
- Importantly, returns were generated without leverage (either direct or effective leverage through options), without taking highly concentrated positions, and while holding substantial cash balances.

¹ Gross returns are before management fees. Your SMA will have a management fee (marginal rates are between 0.95% and 0.50%/year).

² Depending on your goals and circumstances, the strategy of your SMA may vary significantly from that of the Fund.

³ Since inception on July 14, 2011 through the most recent month-ending April 30th, 2017.

⁴ PAST PERFORMANCE IS NO INDICATION OF FUTURE RESULTS.

⁵ Please see the Fund's most recent quarterly letter for full performance data and details on the benchmark and the underlying comparative methodology.

Investment Philosophy

- The investment strategy entails looking beyond momentum and sentiment and seeking assets that are substantially undervalued, relative to intrinsic value.
- Investment assessments are based on a fundamental analysis that utilizes both a top-down and bottom-up analytical approach which capitalizes on the manager's extensive experience in corporate securities analysis.
- Investment allocations to different asset classes (e.g. stocks, bonds) may vary considerably, over time, depending on the manager's value assessment of the different asset categories.

BARAC

Investment Philosophy

- The research-driven and long-term value investing philosophy aims to capitalize on market inefficiencies and deliver systematic outperformance over time.
- The longer-term investment horizon can help to moderate transaction costs and provide for greater tax efficiency, relative to higher-frequency trading strategies.

BARAC
CAPITAL
MANAGEMENT, LLC

Risk Management

- Risk management is fundamental to the overall integrity of the investment strategy which focuses extensively on capital preservation and downside risk.
- Considerable focus is put on credit and general risk analysis to determine risk/reward and the appropriate sizing of positions.
- The manager's general strategy further controls risk by limiting exposure to any one single-name security and avoiding illiquid stocks, mortgage-backed securities, or other illiquid assets.

Honesty and Transparency

- In the investment world, honesty and transparency are of the utmost importance.
- Unfortunately, many financial advisors put their own interests above that of their clients.
- I believe that people who know me would say that I am scrupulous and honest beyond question.
- I am also dedicated to exceptional client service and transparent communication and I take the responsibility of managing your money very seriously.
